If this club is supported by more than one church, list those churches (with contact information) here.

* If your church has never had a Cadet club before, you are entitled to disregard the pledge to send an offering to Corps for the first year. Instead you are encouraged to take an offering for your own club in order to pay for initial expenses you will incur in starting up your club.

If your church has had a Cadet club before, but not within the last four years, you may request an exemption from taking an offering for Corps on the first year of your reinstatement. Send your request to the Cadet office in Grand Rapids, attention: CCC Treasurer.
