| 1 Larry and Nora DeHaan Larry is the president of the Calvinist Cadet Corps and chairs the 2014 International Camporee steering committee. | 13 The Cadet Ministry in New Zealand There are only eight clubs on the two islands of New Zealand, but they have been faithful for many years. | 23 Cadre Counselors Please pray for these men, who are on the front lines of building relationships with boys. Pray that they will succeed in helping their Cadets grow more Christlike in all areas of life. |
| 2 Dick and Mary Broene Dick is the executive director of the Corps and editor of Cadet Quest and other publications. Mary is a secretary in the Cadet office, where she does bookkeeping, answers the phone, and more. | 14 Cadeting in other Foreign Countries There are independent clubs in various countries. Please pray for them as they minister in isolated areas. | 24 Potential Counselors God knows the men He has gifted and chosen to work with boys and young men. Please pray that the men He has chosen will have a desire to serve Him in this manner. |
| 3 Bob and Manette deJonge Bob is the art director, programming assistant, photographer, and webmaster. | 15 Sponsors of African Cadet Clubs We try to match up each African club with a North American sponsor, whether that sponsor be another Cadet club or a council. Please pray for wisdom regarding communication and financing as the different cultures work together. | 25 Individual Cadets Please pray that each boy becomes more conformed to the image of Christ this season. If you know them, pray for them by name. |
| 4 Jack and Kathy Door Kathy is the executive secretary of the Cadet Corps. She works on many of the Cadet publications (including Clarion). | 16 Developers of Counselor Education More than 100 active DCEs are training counselors in their respective councils. | 26 Wives of Counselors It's not only counselors who sacrifice for cadeting. Please pray for the wives, who sacrifice family time to let the ministry grow. |
| 5 Titus and Kim Keller Kim is a secretary for the Cadet Corps. She and Mary job-share; Kim also organizes Corps' fishing tournament, and helps with DCE details. | 17 Quartermasters The quartermasters' job is to stay up to date on every tool that cadeting offers to enhance the ministry, and to keep their respective councils informed on what's available. | 27 Dynamic Youth Ministries Please pray for the GEMS Girls' Clubs and Youth Unlimited, who together with the CCC make up the three ministries of DYM. |
| 6 Jim and Cindi Hoekstra Jim is our new Corps chaplain, serving a term from 2012–2015. | 18 The International Camporee The single most significant CCC event is the international camporee, which occurs once every three years. Please pray for the men of the Central Alberta Council as they plan the 2014 camporee near Lacombe, Alberta. | 28 Finances The ministry of cadeting costs more than churches give in offerings and pay for supplies. Please pray that God will provide for all our financial needs. |
| 7 Bert and LaVonne Bakhuyzen Bert represents the Cadet Corps as club consultant to the independent clubs throughout North America. | 19 Visioning Team The executive committee has established this group to help the CCC with long range planning. Pray that God will indeed give them vision and wisdom. | 29 Congressmen and Congress Congressmen represent the CCC to their local clubs and their local clubs to the CCC through communication and promotion. Congress is the board of directors of the Cadet Corps, involving congressmen from all over North America. Please pray for vision, wisdom, and unity in the decision making process at their annual meetings in January. |
| 8 Daniel Nandwa Daniel coordinates the efforts of Kenyan Cadet clubs for the Reformed Church of East Africa. They have about 30 active clubs. | 20 The International Convention Conventions bring counselors and their families together for inspiration, education, and fellowship. Please pray for the Niagara counselors and wives planning the 2012 convention in Ontario. | 30 New (First Year) Counselors Pray that new counselors will grasp the importance of their calling and respond to God and the boys in positive and effective ways. |
| 9 Bernard and Anita Teeninga Bernard is the training coordinator, working with regional training coordinators (RTCs) and training in the Developer of Counselor Education (DCE) program. | 21 Executive Committee These nine men take on the duty of monitoring operations and making decisions between the annual board meetings (Congress). | 31 Culture of Prayer It may seem strange to pray for prayer, but we need to. If we are to grow as a culture of prayer, we need to ask God to help us do so. Pray for yourself and others within the Cadet ministry to have a closer walk with God. |
| 10 Regional Training Coordinators There are eight regions in North America, and each one has an unpaid training coordinator whose job it is to see that the educational needs of the counselors are being met. Pray for their diligence and success. | 22 Head Counselors Please pray for head counselors, who accept responsibility for running the Cadet clubs in their churches. | |
| 11 The Cadet Ministry in Kenya Begun in 2006, Cadets has grown to more than 30 clubs in the Reformed Church of East Africa. | | |
| 12 The Cadet Ministry in Australia Please pray for the strength of cadeting in Australia, where it has gone on for nearly 50 years. | | |
