

Cadet Prayer Calendar 2019

This is your chance to start or add to your prayer list. You can help by praying for the ministry of the Calvinist Cadet Corps each day of the month.

1 Dave and Gina Mast Dave is the president of the Cadet Corps, a volunteer, elected position. Pray that he can fit the time demands into his work and family schedules.	13 The Cadet Ministry in Kenya Begun in 2006, Cadets in Kenya has grown to more than 90 clubs in the Reformed Church of East Africa and other denominations.	23 Cadre Counselors Pray that cadre counselors will build Godly relationships with boys and help their Cadets grow more Christlike in all areas of life.
2 Steve and Cheryl Bootsma Steve is the executive director of the Corps and editor of Cadet Quest and other publications.	14 The Cadet Ministries in Australia Please pray for the strength of cadeting in Australia, where it has gone on for nearly 50 years.	24 Potential Counselors God knows the men He has gifted and chosen to work with boys and young men. Pray that the men He has chosen will have a desire to serve Him in this manner.
3 Bob and Manette deJonge Bob is the art director, programming assistant, photographer, and webmaster.	15 The Cadet Ministry in New Zealand There are only eight clubs on the two islands of New Zealand, but they have been faithful for many years.	25 Individual Cadets Pray that each boy in Cadets becomes more conformed to the image of Christ this season. Pray for each Cadet you know by name.
4 Sarah and Joshua Stuitje Sarah is the office administrator at Corps headquarters and an assistant designer for publications.	16 Cadeting in Other Foreign Countries There are independent clubs in various countries. Please pray for them as they minister in isolated areas.	26 Wives of Counselors It's not only counselors who sacrifice for cadeting. Pray for the wives, who sacrifice family time to let the ministry grow.
5 Kim and Titus III Keller Kim is a secretary for the Cadet Corps, responsible for congressman relations.	17 Sponsors of International Cadet Clubs North America sponsors help fund the administrative costs of the international ministry, as well as purchasing additional materials for specific clubs. Pray for wisdom regarding communication and financing across different cultures.	27 Dynamic Youth Ministries Pray for the GEMS Girl's Clubs, Youth Unlimited, and The Esther School who, together with Cadets, make up the four ministries of DYM.
6 Becky and Dave Baker Becky is a secretary for the Cadet Corps, responsible for accounts receivable.	18 Developers of Counselor Education Nearly 100 active DCEs are training counselors in their respective councils.	28 Finances The ministry of cadeting costs more than churches give in offerings and pay for supplies. Please pray that God will provide for all our financial needs.
7 Russ and Amanda Roozeboom Russ is the marketing and promotions coordinator for the Cadet Corps and helps maintain the website.	19 The International Camporee The single most significant CCC event is the International Camporee, which occurs once every three years. Please pray for the team from Michigan as they plan for the 2020 International Camporee.	29 Congressmen and Congress Congressmen represent the CCC to their local clubs and their local clubs to the CCC through communication and promotion. Congress is the board of directors of the Cadet Corps, involving congressmen from all over North America. Pray for vision, wisdom, and unity in the decision making process at their annual meetings in January.
8 Jim and Cindi Hoekstra Jim is our Corps chaplain, writing some of our Bible lessons and leading the chaplain team at Camporees.	20 Visioning Team The executive committee has established this group to help the CCC with long range planning. Pray that God will indeed give them vision and wisdom.	30 New (First Year) Counselors Pray that new counselors will grasp the importance of their calling and respond to God and the boys in positive and effective ways.
9 Bert and LaVonne Bakhuyzen Bert represents the Cadet Corps as club consultant to the independent clubs throughout North America.	21 Executive Committee These nine men monitor operations and make decisions between the annual board meetings (Congress).	31 Personal Growth If we are to grow and succeed as a ministry, we need to ask God to help us do so. Pray for yourself and others within the Cadet ministry to have a closer walk with God and to hear His continued call.
10 Daniel and Caroline Nandwa Daniel coordinates the efforts of all the Kenyan Cadet clubs.	22 Head Counselors Please pray for head counselors, who accept responsibility for running the Cadet clubs in their churches.
11 Dick and Mary Broene Dick, our retired Executive Director, is now serving as Training Coordinator.
12 Regional Training Coordinators There are eight regions in North America and each one has an unpaid training coordinator whose job it is to see that the educational needs of counselors are being met. Pray for their diligence and success.
